

Do you want to create change in your organisation in a way
that goes beyond what has been achieved in the past?

Become part of a worldwide
network of AR and AL Practitioners

ALARA is a strategic network of people who use action learning and action research to generate collaborative learning, research and action to transform workplaces, schools, colleges, universities, communities, voluntary organisations, governments and businesses.

We share a vision for a world benefiting from the ever increasing use of action research and action learning to achieve a more just, sustainable and peaceful future.

ALARA is one of the longest-established associations of practitioners worldwide, growing from an originating base in Australia where we are incorporated. Our membership is drawn from 25 countries, making us truly international.
