

Your Invitation as a Student / Educator to participate in an Online Discussion Group about Participatory Modes of Engagement in Learning and Conducting Research

The Action Learning Action Research Association Inc. (ALARA) has created an online LinkedIn discussion group to support students and educators in universities and educational institutions who are interested in collaborative and participative approaches to learning and research. Specifically, it aims to open a space where those individuals can connect and learn with each other.

ALARA is a strategic network of people interested in using action research and action learning to generate collaborative learning, research and action to transform workplaces, schools, colleges, universities, communities, voluntary organisations, governments and businesses.

ALARA's vision is that action research and action learning will be widely used and publicly shared by individuals and groups creating local and global change for the achievement of a more equitable, just, joyful, productive, peaceful and sustainable society.
